Exhibit Guidelines

Exhibit displays must not project so as to obstruct the view of an adjacent booth. All exhibit materials must remain in the Exhibitor's booth. Any Exhibitor exceeding the limitations may be asked to dismantle or remove that portion from the exhibit.

Dismantling and Staffing of Exhibits

Exhibit booths must be staffed during all hours that the Trade Show is open, and no Exhibitor will be permitted to dismantle an exhibit prior to the close of the trade show.

Failure to Occupy Booths

Any booths not occupied by 11:00am on September 20, 2017 shall be lost by Exhibitor and the booth may be resold, reassigned or used by the exhibit staff without refund, unless a written request for delayed occupancy has been received by the Fayette County Board of Realtors (hereinafter referred to as "Fayette County BOR") office by September 15, 2017, and has granted its written approval. Fayette County BOR reserves the right to reject future applications for exhibit booth space at future trade shows in the event Exhibitor does not staff its exhibit booth during all open show hours.

Liability for Damages or Loss of Property

Exhibitor expressly represents and warrants that its exhibit and all materials used in the exhibit will comply with all fire and safety rules and regulations adopted by all applicable government agencies and the Delta Flight Museum. Exhibitor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Fayette BOR and its employees and officers from and against any and all claims, causes of actions, liabilities, damages, judgments, losses, costs, fees and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees), arising out of or relating in any way to strict liability, intentional misconduct, or negligence by Exhibitor, its employees or guests, whether for property damage, personal injury or wrongful death. Exhibitor further agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Fayette County BOR and its employees and officers from and against all claims, causes of action, liabilities, damages, judgments, losses, costs, fees and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) arising out of or relating in any way to personal injury, property damage or wrongful death suffered or incurred by Exhibitor, its employees, guests or property.

Security

Fayette County BOR does not guarantee or insure that the exhibit hall shall be secured and does not assume any responsibility for the safety of property left in the exhibit hall at any time. Exhibitors agree that they shall be solely responsible for valuables and other possessions left in their exhibit booths.

Sales Tax Licenses

Exhibitors intending to sell any product during the Trade Show must possess all required Sales Tax Licenses.

Insuring the Exhibits

Fayette County BOR will not provide insurance for Exhibitor's exhibits or display materials. Exhibitors are encouraged to insure their exhibits, merchandise and display materials against theft, fire and other loss, at their own expense.

Subletting Booth Space

Exhibitors may not assign, sublet or apportion all or any of their booth space without the prior written approval of Fayette County BOR. Fayette County BOR reserves the right to charge additional fees to any Exhibitor wishing to assign, sublet, or apportion all or any part of its booth.

Cancelling Exhibit

If for any cause beyond the control of Fayette County BOR, such as, but not limited to, the destruction of the exhibit facilities by an act of God, the public enemy, authority of law, fire or other force, Fayette County BOR is unable to comply with the terms of this Agreement deliver booth space assigned hereunder, this Agreement shall be considered terminated and any payments made hereunder by Exhibitor shall be refunded to Exhibitor, less expenses incurred by Fayette County BOR to the date of termination allocable to Exhibitor, after proration thereof among all Exhibitors.

Miscellaneous
